From my heart

Dearly Beloved,
Greetings in Jesus' Most precious Name.

God is able to fulfil every word that He has promised. He perfected every word that He had spoken to David. Take the word that God has spoken to you specifically and confess it daily. Don't look at your negative circumstances and believe the lies of the devil that things will not work out for you. God's word is true. Believe the promises of God with all your heart and praise God and be strengthened in your faith. Your faith will overcome the world. Your war time will turn into celebration time. In everything give thanks and remember you are more than conquerors.

From the beginning of May, my wife and I have been journeying for the cause of ministry. We are experiencing the power of your prayers at every meeting. May God Almighty reward you. In the next two months, there are many ministry commitments that have to be completed. Please pray for us. Even as this magazine reaches your hands, we will be returning to Germany from Canada and US to minister there. Pray for a powerful move of the Holy Spirit in Germany.

As you are aware, the 34th Batch of the Short Term Course are from 10th-19th August, 2011. If you have not attended any of our Short Term Courses, please sign up for it. Contact our office for the details and they will guide you. Encourage those who have a passion to shine brighter as the noon day sun in ministry to sign up as well. In all my travel across the nations in the last 30 odd years I have come across many of our participants of the Short Term Course powerfully being used by God. Many have understood their calling and are walking powerfully in it. Some have established powerful ministries and are being used mightily by God. Truly the Short Term Course will transform your life and ministry!

From September to November 2011, we are having a 3 month course termed the "School of The Holy Spirit" in our Poondi Campsite. 'You will be a different person' was the promise God gave me for this School. Sure enough, God drastically transforms the lives of those who attend this school. We usually conduct it only for men. But for the first time we are encouraging married couples to attend this school as well. Children will not be allowed. My wife and I will be there to personally oversee the 3 month course. Do come and participate in it.

Construction work is going on in full swing at the Poondi Campsite. We aim to complete the 12 rooms before STC in August. Pray for wisdom and coordination for the team involved in this construction work and for the needed finances. If you have pledged to give for the Building Project, please try to fulfil your commitment.

Continue to pray for our health, ministry and travel. Please uphold our aged parents, our counselors, staff members and partners in your prayers. May God bless you, your family and your ministry. Till we meet again in the next issue, may God's everlasting arm sustain and keep you. God bless you.

Your loving brother,

Alexander Francis

You are a _____ Joseph

PART 3

PROPHETIC MESSAGE

Dr. Ezekiah Francis

For the past few months we have been looking into the life of Joseph. Without a shadow of doubt, I know that Joseph's life is impacting us in this twenty first century. In this issue also let us continue to meditate on the life of Joseph.

In many of our Youth Camps, I am asked this question: 'How can I be without sinning against God?' For Joseph, that was not an issue at all. His question was: 'How can I sin against God?' This is the true standard of holiness. In these last days, God is raising up the standard of holiness in the church. Joseph thought: 'Me - falling?! Never!!' That was the fiery zeal that gripped Joseph.

Nehemiah had a similar zeal.

'One man said, "Let us meet in the house of God, inside the temple, and let us close the temple doors, because men are coming to kill you." But I said, "Should a man like me run away? Or should one like me go into the temple to save his life? I will not go!"' (Neh.6:10, 11).

You are not a little mouse that groans and falters at the first temptation that comes your way! You are a lion cub that bares its teeth and growls at the temptation that tries to swallow it.

"For sin shall not be your master, because you are not under law, but under grace." "Therefore, brothers, we have an obligation-but it is not to the sinful nature, to live according to it" (Rom.6:14; 8:12).

When you are passionately in love with the Lord, your heart will tremble at the thought of making Him sad by sinning. At the last supper, Jesus said, "One of you will betray me". Immediately there was confusion at the table! Each one said, 'Is it me Lord? Is it me?' That confusion itself showed their half-hearted love for the Lord. The fear that troubled the hearts of the disciples was: 'Will I betray the Lord someday? Will I be unfaithful to Him?' The Bible says 'Perfect love casts out all fear'. In the midst of this confusion, John who was leaning on the Lord Jesus did not ask Him like the others.

Instead he said, 'Lord, who is he?' John was absolutely sure in his heart that he would not and could not betray Christ. God poured this boldness and confidence into each one of us. It is up to us to stir it up.

You might quote the verse, 'If you think you are standing, be careful, lest you fall' and wonder where it fits in. Trusting in your own ability is wrong. You have Christ in you. Faith believes that you won't fall because He who is in you is greater than he that is in the world. This is the faith that overcomes the world.

Sometime ago God beautifully expounded this truth to me. Jesus, a handsome young man went to the well at Samaria. An adulterous woman who had five husbands tried chatting Him up. At that point, who changed whom? Did she change Him? Or did His anointing transform her life?! This powerful life changing anointing is in you. An unbelieving husband is made holy through a god-fearing wife. An unbelieving wife is made holy through a god-fearing husband. The power of God that is in you can pull a person out of the pit of sin onto the highway of holiness. Do not underestimate His power in you.

Endurance

Potiphar's wife did not give up. She kept luring him everyday. But Joseph rejected her advances day after day. He did not even encourage her lustful conversation (Gen.39:10). This is another key to a holy life. Victory is not standing against sin for a couple of days and then falling into it. Victory is enduring against sin till the very end. Day after day, though she tried to sweet-talk him, he adamantly came against her. This is what Christ referred to when He said, 'He who endures till the end will be saved'.

Be aggressive against sin. We should wrestle against sin to the point of shedding blood. Those who soft-peddle in this area will not be victorious.

Be Alert and Diligent

Joseph gives us another key to overcome sin. Those who diligently go about their work will not fall prey to lust. Note this! Though she tempted him everyday, he diligently did his daily duties. He did not 'meditate' on her words or daydream all day long.

'One day he went into the house to attend to his duties, and none of the household servants was inside. She caught him by his cloak and said, "Come to bed with me!" But he left his cloak in her hand and ran out of the house' (Gen.39:11,12).

Joseph's mind was on his work and he went into the house to do work. If he had given in to day dreaming, he would have fallen in sin that day.

An idle mind is the devil's workshop. If you think about things that are true, noble, right, pure, lovely, praiseworthy, then you will not fall into sin.

As long as David had his mind on fighting battles, praising God, extending his boundaries and ruling wisely, he led a victorious life. But when he forgot the battle field and stayed back in his palace, slept in the daytime, let his mind wander and his eyes stray, he saw Bathsheba and fell prey to lust!

To stay away from lust, the soul, body and mind should be busy. A lazy man will fall in the sin of lust. The mind that constantly praises God, sings and speaks in tongues will not falter. When you are lazing around, satan will search for opportunities to trap you. With the above examples contrast the outcome of laziness, and the victory of diligence.

Fill your mind with the word of God. Those who fall into sin first sin in their mind. Your body will follow the way of the mind. Just as you have a bath every morning, wash your mind with the word of God. When you find dirty, lustful thoughts troubling your mind, increase your prayer life, fasting times and Bible reading times.

In my younger days, when my mind was attacked by bad thoughts, I would take my Bible and run off to a secluded place to fast and pray. For days on end, I would read and meditate the word of God. Then I would sense calmness and an unusual feeling of holiness envelop me. Use this key and open the door to freedom from sinful thoughts that plague you.

Flee

For days on end Potiphar's wife tried to seduce Joseph and she failed. One day, when no one was in the house, she grabs his garment and compels him to sin. But he left his garment and fled the scene (Gen.39:11-12). His running away does not reflect cowardice, but his zeal. A coward would have fallen flat in this situation. Like I said earlier, we should fight against sin to the point of shedding blood.

Jesus comes down heavily on this issue. 'If your right eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. If your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It's ok to lose one part of your body than be whole and lose eternity with God.' He can't be more specific than this.

The Holy Bible that says 'resist the devil' also says 'flee youthful lust'. You cannot stand against lust and win. Fleeing is the only way out.

"Flee the evil desires of youth, and pursue righteousness, faith, love and peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart" (2Tim.2:22).

Fleeing lust and seeking the fellowship of believers is the secret to victory in this area. In Joseph's time, he did not have the fellowship of believers and he fled the scene. He went through severe problems when he did this, yet he was zealous to guard himself. You should have the boldness to sever your hand or pluck out your eye if the need arises for the sake of holiness. Be prepared to face any kind of loss. God will see it and reward you a thousand fold.

Suffer

Joseph suffered for righteousness' sake. When the master's wife realised that she had lost the battle of lust with Joseph, her lust turned into anger and bitterness. An interesting truth lies hidden here. If you do not yield to lust, it becomes anger and hatred. But if you do not yield to love, it will remain love. That's the big difference between love and lust. When you reject sexual union outside the bonds of marriage, intense desire becomes hatred and bitterness. This is a sure sign of lust, and this is what happened to Joseph.

When she did not get what she wanted, she was furious with Joseph. She raised a hue and cry. She called the household servants and accused Joseph of behaving badly with her. She portrayed herself as a good person, and Joseph as a lustful, immoral man. Finally she complained to her husband about Joseph and angered him. Joseph's freedom was curtailed. He now became a prisoner.

Shame, scorn, unjust accusation, being misunderstood, others seeking revenge, imprisonment... Just think about this for a moment. How would Joseph have felt when he saw Potiphar's trust in him change drastically to anger against him? Imagine the household servants' scorn and gossip behind his back. Is it easy to be accused for something you never did? His heart must have crumbled into a hundred pieces.

His mind wandered down memory lane. His childhood... his father's love... the God-given vision... his brother's hatred... pushed into a pit...sold into slavery. Now, in trying to guard his holiness, he was made a prisoner. This is the suffering you would have to undergo for righteousness' sake.

May the zeal for holiness grip every one of our hearts today. The zeal which says, 'Even if I have to go to prison, I will not be a prisoner to sin. At any cost I will guard holiness....even the cost of accusation'.

Dear Josephs, maybe you're being tempted, not by unbelievers, but by believers. Whatever it is, take a stand to suffer for righteousness sake. Be willing to pay a price on the altar of holiness. That itself will raise you up to be a Joseph one day.

The best model for you to follow is our Lord Jesus Christ. He suffered without sinning, was slapped without even saying a word and He willingly gave himself over to judgement. Surrender yourselves completely today to be willing to suffer for holiness' sake. Listen to the advice Peter gives you.

'For it is commendable if a man bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because he is conscious of God. But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God. To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in His steps' (1Peter.2:19-21).

Many people sin and suffer the consequences. But where are those who are willing to suffer for not sinning? The future generation Josephs, you have to answer that question.

Mercy, Grace and an Outstretched Arm....

- Cherubina

'Grace'... Isn't it a beautiful word? it's one word that makes me wobbly....Just because I know I don't deserve it.....

...there was a sinner lying face down on the road of life. She had brought about her own downfall... No one turned her way...No one wanted to help her... No one could.

She couldn't face anyone after what she'd done. She'd fallen too far. She was covered with dirt-how could anyone even look at her?

As thoughts of hopelessness raced through her mind, a hand reached out to her. She'd dreamed about it happening so often that she thought it wasn't real. But it was. The person standing in front of her didn't say a word about what she had done. He didn't even look like he cared about how dirty she was. His eyes just looked into the depths of her soul with compassion and love. There was no judgment. No accusation. No scorn. Just mercy, grace, and an outstretched arm.....

As she reached out and touched His hands, she became clean again. It was as if she'd just begun her journey... The scars, the filth, the dirt, the tears-everything was gone. She looked at the nail-pierced hands that picked her up from where she fell. She didn't deserve it.

Testimonies

Greetings in the precious name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. God blessed me with a son after coming back from signs and wonders seminar. I conceived in March and gave birth to a son on 15th November 2010. We named him Elisha. By the grace of God and your continuous prayers, he was born healthy. He is a miracle child because according to the doctors I had high thyroid and also a blood deficiency(high toxic) a 4cm fibroid in the uterus and my age was 45. With God everything is possible. We have dedicated this child for the ministry. Thank you so much for your prayers.

Sis.Shoba Gupta
Ludiana, Punjab

I attended last STC. In that meeting I got new energy and hope for the bright future. At that time I prayed for a child. I was waiting six years for a child. After STC I

He held her hand as they walked together-again on that road of life. Some passersby knew her past, some did not. Those who knew her began to look at her with scorn. But then, something happened-she hid behind Him. And all people could see was Him. No one could scorn her, curse her or ridicule her anymore-just because she stood in His shadow, by His grace...

I'm no better than the next person. I've seen people in pain and walked right by. I've done things unforgivable. But if God can give me grace I don't deserve, why can't I do the same for someone else? See things through His eyes... How He would have reacted.. How He would show compassion and love, especially when it's not deserved. If He can look at me with merciful eyes, why can't I? Even if it's a healthy looking beggar on the street... Even if it's the auto guy who charged twice the right amount... Even if it's a murderer who's killed a lot of people... Even if it's a person who's let you down.....

Do they deserve grace? No... Do I? Absolutely not!

But that's the beauty of grace, isn't it?

came home with satisfaction that the Lord will definitely do a miracle. Last month (May 3rd) Lord blessed us with a boy baby. Our joy knows no limit. Really after I met Dr. Ezekiah Francis and Sr. Benita Francis our life has entered miracle rivers. We both are very thankful to God for connecting us with this blessed ministry.

BLESS YOUR PLANET

Your loving Father God has given you a great inheritance: He has given you a perfectly designed planet to tend and keep and enjoy. If you bless your planet, the earth will yield its strength to you, and you will not have to struggle with thorns and thistles like Adam and the entire humanity after the fall (Ge.4:12; Ge.3:17-19).

If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good of the land (Isa.1:19). If you obey your loving Savior, even your fields and all that you have will be blessed (Dt.28:1-14). You can bless and exalt your planet with your words and with your actions (Pr.11:11). Start doing it today!

Divide your household waste

In Western nations, dividing the waste was made compulsory many years ago. We collect our waste paper and waste metals for recycling. We throw our glass bottles into containers provided and serviced by the government - brown bottles into brown containers, green bottles into green containers, transparent bottles into white containers.

By this separation even according to color, recycling is made easier for the companies. Our plastic waste is collected in special bags that are picked up once or twice a month. Kitchen waste is used to produce compost, the very best fertilizer for all kinds of plants.

By all these easy to use measures we save lots of money and precious raw materials. By reusing and recycling we save production, transportation and disposal costs and all its pollution that would again create a heavy toxic load for our precious planet.

Compost

Our organic waste including tea and coffee powder is collected in a separate container or ideally made into compost, a wonderful organic fertilizer for our flowers, fruits, vegetables or whatever we desire to grow.

Remaining is very little waste that doesn't fit into any of these categories and is burned in special factories that must be equipped with many different filters to ensure the least possible pollution. By this system, we create jobs, save money and precious resources and avoid lots of toxic waste with all its health hazards.

Grow your own organic vegetables

A kitchen window sill herb and vegetable garden is much easier to make than you might have imagined. We have already discussed the tremendous health benefits of sprouts - an edible "explosion of life"! (See my book "Health, your most precious asset", available at www.ezekiahfrancis.org). Sprouts can be grown in any vessel and need nothing more than an initial over-night soaking in water and consequent rinses twice or thrice a day. You can also grow salads and vegetables or wheat grass on just a little bit of earth in a pot in any convenient place. Enjoy the wonder of God's creation, and enjoy health and strength from your home-grown vitamin- and mineral-teeming delicacies!

Green buildings

Buildings are now constructed as "green buildings" which means they are built in the most energy-efficient way. Light-vents are used to bring healthy daylight into rooms and offices. By this, you avoid the cost of electricity and light bulbs, but more importantly, you avoid the health hazards of having to live and work in artificial light all day long.

Brain disorders, nervous problems, depression, sleeplessness, eye diseases and many more health problems were linked to artificial light in office buildings.

In the high-rise cities of Japan, huge mirrors are fixed on the walls of sky scrapers to reflect sunlight into the windows of the opposite building. Great health benefits have been achieved just by allowing God's creation, natural sunlight, into living quarters.

Natural building materials and the most efficient insulation techniques are also a great benefit for your purse and your planet. Millions are wasted in air conditioning or heating each year just because of insufficient insulation or not tightly fitting windows.

In many cases, air conditioning is not even needed when you build your house in the right angle to the wind direction. God's natural air conditioning is always better and healthier than the man-made form!

Even the color of a building makes a big difference. In USA, one city decided to paint all flat roofs and dark surfaces with white color. Can you imagine that the temperature dropped by 5°C on these white surfaces compared to the normal, old ones?

Putting living plants into buildings is another wonderful way of natural air conditioning. Living plants take carbon dioxide out of the air and release pure oxygen in return. You can spray them with water which will also cool your room in summer and get rid of the heater-induced air dryness in winter.

Enjoy your planet

As you see, there are many small things you can do very easily, but they will make a big difference in the long run. So enjoy your life and this beautiful planet your loving Creator has prepared for you! It will readily submit to you as you use your authority as a son of God (Ro.8:14,19; Ga.3:26).

Make this planet a Garden of Eden for you and for others through the blessing you have received as His child, His friend and His ambassador (1.Ti.6:17; Ge.2:8; 1:28-29; Jn.1:12; Ro.8:16,21; 1.Jn.3:1-2; Jn.15:15; Jas.2:23; 2.Co.5:20)!

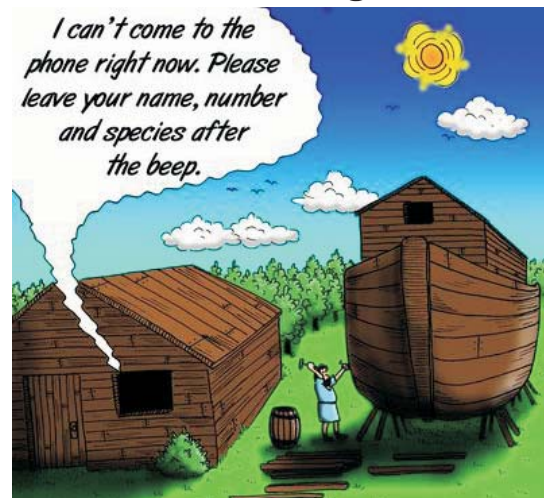

There is no doubt about it: Your God really wants you to ENJOY His creation! Some years ago, I was travelling through the North American deserts on my way to Youth with a Mission. On my third day of travel, I became really restless. "Lord, I want to serve You! I want to evangelize, but there is nobody around in this desert. Please bring somebody across my path that needs to hear about You."

To my greatest surprise, the Lord answered this noble desire in a totally unexpected manner. He spoke in a very soft voice right into my spirit, "You cannot imagine what it means to Me when somebody enjoys My creation and worships Me for it!" Wow! That touched me very deeply.

In the Western world, most people are nature lovers - but how many really worship and glorify Jesus for His wonderful creation? In India, most people don't even have an eye to see the beauty and marvel of nature; they rather fear and abhor it or worship it out of fear.

God Himself says through His apostle Paul, "For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made..." but people "worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator". Great uncleanness, vile passions, shame, error and all the consequences of a debased mind were the result (Ro.1:20-32). So don't be foolish! Don't ever worship any created thing! Worship Jesus, your loving Creator, and enjoy, honor and protect His creation, your beautiful planet!

See yourself in Christ Daily

(A devotional guide to develop your faith muscles)

Nuggets from See Yourself in Christ Daily - a daily devotional written by Prophet Ezekiah Francis. Get a notebook and write down all the verses and faith confessions given below and memorise them. Read them aloud everyday, as often as possible during the week till you can say it from memory. This exercise will build your faith.

Week 1

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!" (2Cor.5:17)

If you are in Christ, all things have become new.

Faith Confession: I am a new creation. Old things are gone forever. The blood of Jesus stands between the past and me.

Week 2

"And you have been given fullness in Christ who is the head over every power and authority" (Col.2:10)

The earth was formless, void and dark until God spoke over it. In Christ, you have His form and structure. So don't accept your past unstructured lifestyle any longer.

Faith Confession: In Christ, I am complete with all the fullness and beauty of God.

Week 3

"For He has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son He loves" (Col.1:13)

Salvation is not simply obtaining forgiveness of sin. It is a total transfer from the world of darkness into the world of light.

Faith Confession: I am a glory carrier. I am walking in the light and darkness has no part in me.

Week 4

"For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God" (Col.3:3)

Faith Confession: My life is hidden with Christ in God. Wherever He moves, I move, because Christ is living in me, and I in Him.

BERACHAH BUILDING PROJECT

We have started the construction of the second floor of the guest house. We will have twelve more rooms available for our Short Term Course in August. You can come forward to sponsor one of the twelve rooms or to share whatever you can and be a part of the miracle harvest. Each room works out to 3.75 lakhs and the cost of the entire floor is Rs. 45 lakhs.
